Stay Scam-Savvy: Fraud Awareness Seminar is Nov. 4
Hosted by the St. Charles Senior Services Commission

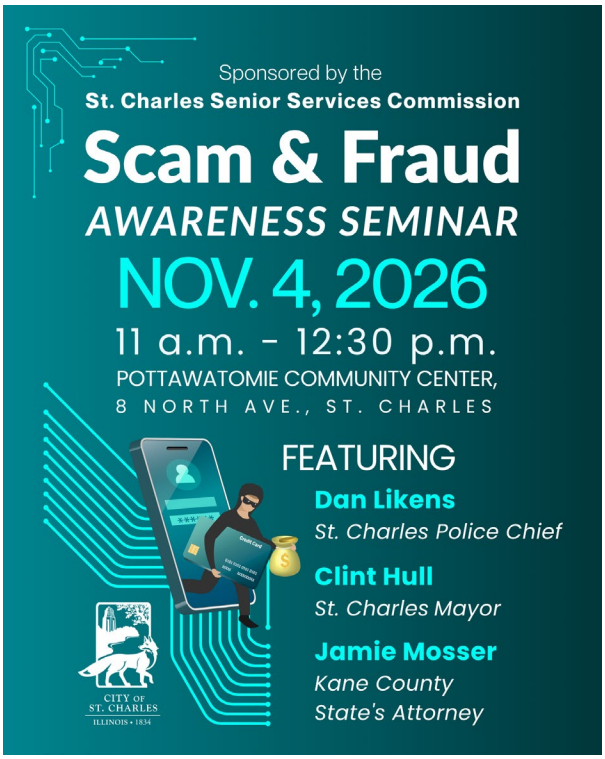
ST. CHARLES, Ill. (Oct. 13, 2026) – The St. Charles Senior Services Commission is hosting a free Scam and Fraud Awareness Seminar Nov. 4, 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., at the Pottawatomie Community Center, 8 North Ave., in St. Charles.

St. Charles Police Chief Dan Likens, Mayor Clint Hull and Kane County State's Attorney Jamie Mosser will discuss common scams including:

- Investment and cryptocurrency
- Tech support
- Government impersonation
- Grandparent/family emergency
- Driver's license and tollway violations
- Romance scams

“Scammers are becoming increasingly sophisticated, and it can be difficult to know whether a call, text or email is legitimate,” said Drew Watson, Chair of the St. Charles Senior Services Commission. “The Commission is hosting this seminar to give residents practical information they can use to recognize the warning signs of a scam, protect themselves and their families, and know where to turn if they suspect fraud.”

Light refreshments will be served. An RSVP is not required but is appreciated. Those planning to attend may send an email to rsvp@stcharlesil.gov.



About the City of St. Charles

The City of St. Charles, Illinois, is guided by the three driving principles in its Mission: Service. Tradition. Community. Together, these principles create a thriving environment for people who live or visit here, and for businesses to prosper. Our City has gained national recognition as a family-friendly town and wide acclaim for its architecture, living up to its nickname Pride of the Fox. Conveniently located 35 miles west of Chicago, in Kane and northwestern DuPage counties, St. Charles is home to 33,000 residents and a balanced mix of more than 2,000 businesses that employ approximately 28,700 people.
