ST. CHARLES, III. (March 30, 2026) – Hear about the current progress, challenges, and future initiatives of the City of St. Charles at the State of the City May 6, 6-7:30 p.m. at the Arcada Theatre, 105 E. Main Street, St. Charles. Get updates from the City, and from the St. Charles Park District, St. Charles Public Library, and St. Charles CUSD 303.

This free event is hosted by the City of St. Charles and the St. Charles Area Chamber of Commerce and is open to the public.

A Q&A Reception immediately follows and offers the opportunity to engage with City of St. Charles Alderpersons, Mayor Hull, and City staff.

“We’re introducing a new format for this year’s State of the City,” said Mayor Clint Hull. “We’re bringing together the park district, library and school district to be a part of this event. It’s a great opportunity to hear what’s happening throughout the community. And the Q&A Reception offers another way to connect with elected officials and City staff. I hope to see everyone there.”
