2022 Annual Report

Chief's Letter of Introduction

It is with great pride that I present the St. Charles Police Department's Annual Report for calendar year 2022. This information outlines the activities conducted by members of the St. Charles Police Department to inform you of the great work done on a daily basis by our employees. Our mission is to provide quality service with respect and a commitment to excellence. Included in this report is an overview of our services, crime rates, enforcement statistics, and other associated activities.

Highlights of this past calendar year include the additional hiring of new personnel, the implementation of new in-service training programs, and work towards replacing several key command team members who announced their pending retirements. In addition, the probable onset of the Pretrial Fairness Act, the Safety Act, and the Community Emergency Services and Supports Act (Cessa) also required several policy and procedural updates moving forward.

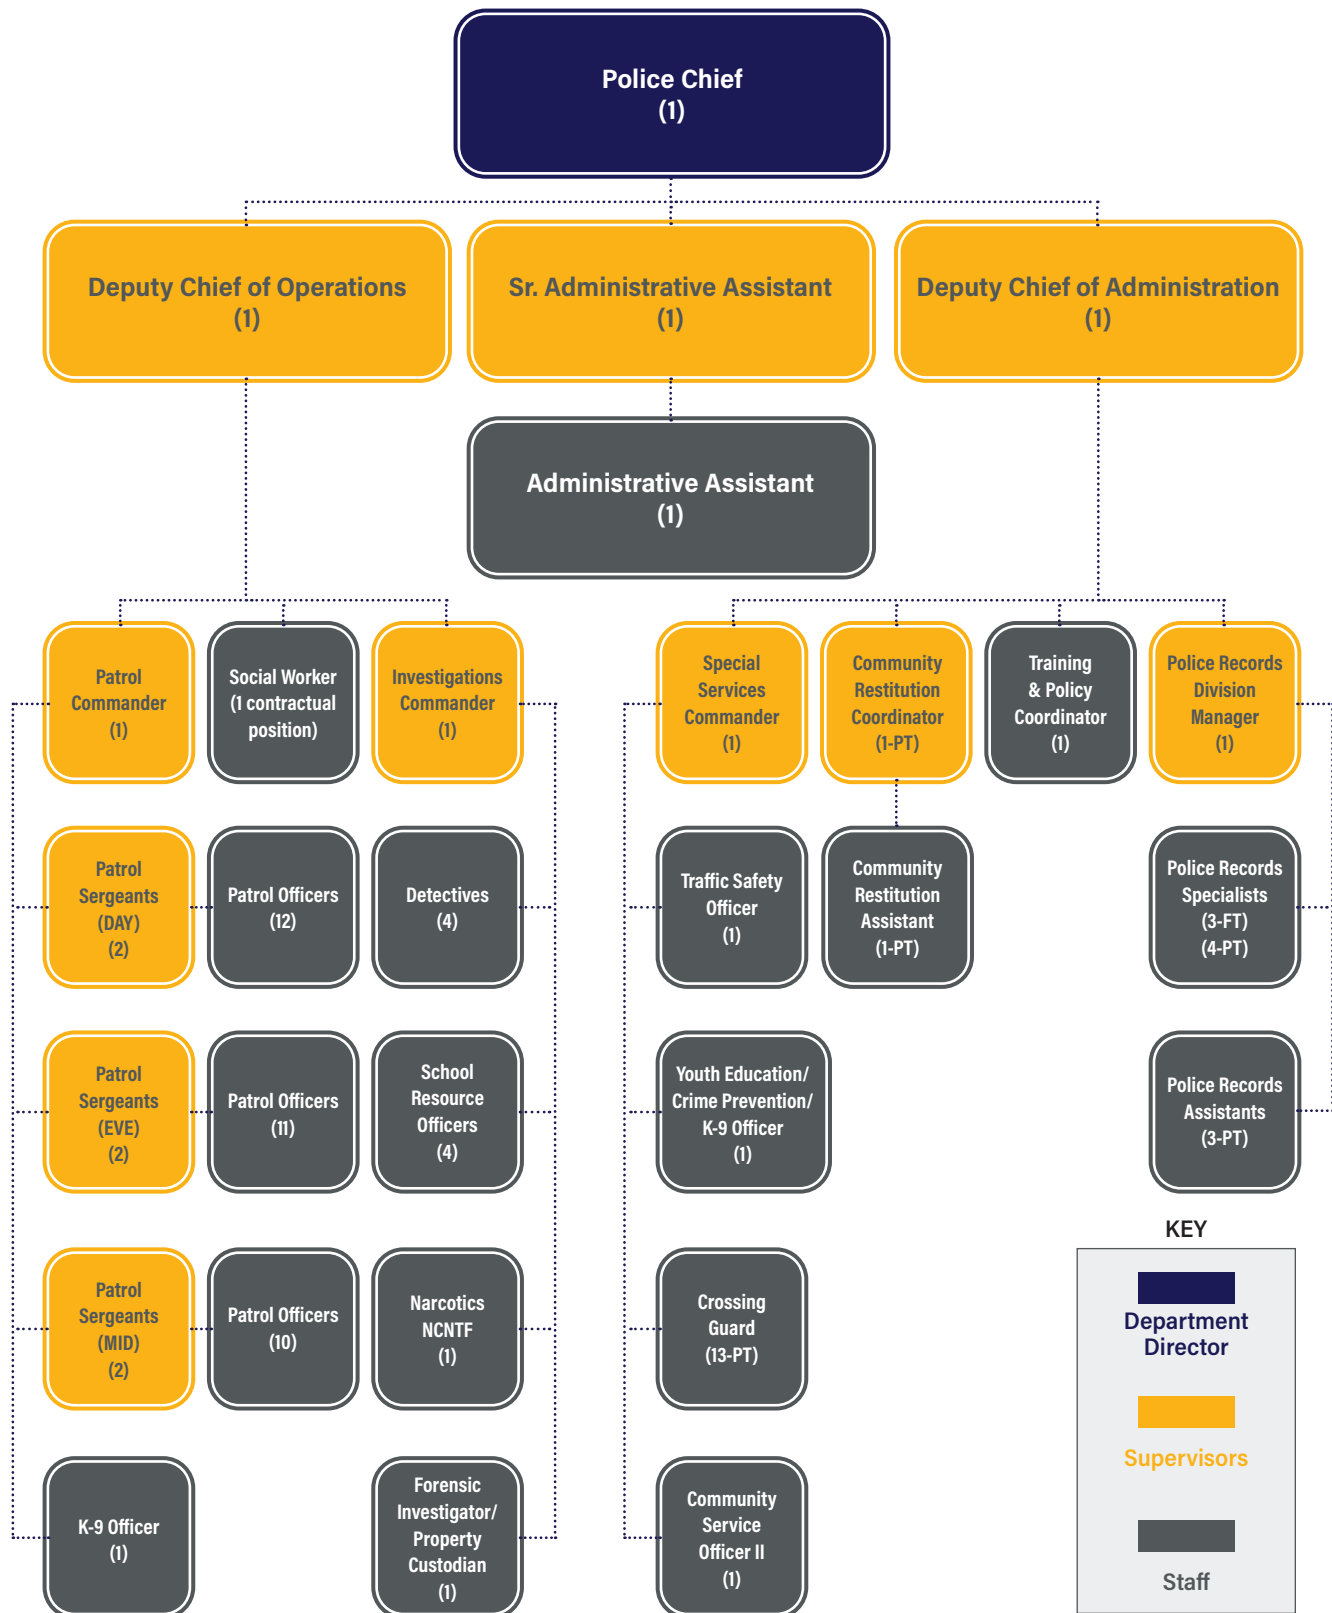

Regardless, we as an organization remain committed to our citizens and the quality of the services we provide. Through quality training and organizational preparedness, we consider ourselves forever vigilant to respond to whatever emergency situation arises using the four tenets of our core values; Service, Professionalism, Courage, and Dedication (SCPD).

Criminal Investigations

By Investigations Commander Eric Majewski

The Criminal Investigations Division serves in many roles with its primary responsibility to provide investigative support to the Patrol Division. Reported incidents are reviewed to identify cases which require additional follow-up efforts that would exceed the patrol division resources, are complex in nature, or have leads that expand beyond our jurisdiction. Solvability factors such as potential suspects, evidence, crime patterns, etc., are considered when determining when a case is assigned to a detective for additional follow-up work. These assignments would include cases requiring multiple interviews, extensive crime scene work, or ongoing surveillance activities. These investigations can vary in duration before a case is successfully investigated or closed. A case is closed after all potential leads have been exhausted which may or may not result in an arrest.

The Criminal Investigations Division staffing consisted of the following personnel during 2022:

- Investigations Division Commander
- 4- General Assignment Detectives
- 2- High School Resource Officers; 1 each at St. Charles East and North High Schools
- 2- Middle School Resource Officers; 1 each at Wredling and Thompson Middle Schools
- Narcotics Inspector assigned to the North Central Narcotics Task Force/Illinois State Police
- 1-Forensic Investigator/Property Custodian
- 1-Civilian Administrative Assistant

General Assignment Detectives and School Resource Officers worked 386 cases in 2022, compared to the 358 cases in 2021. Of those, 252 cases were criminal in nature, resulting in 87 arrests - a 35% clearance rate. The overall criminal case clearance rate for 2021 was 38% with 87 arrests. 42 cases assigned during 2021 remained in a "pending additional investigation" status at the end of the year and were followed up on in 2022. 29 cases assigned in 2022 were left pending and will carry over into 2023.

Arson Investigation

On May 21, the St. Charles Police Department responded to an arson investigation located at the site of the closed Pheasant Run Resort. The St. Charles Fire Department, along with several other local fire agencies, assisted in putting out the blaze. An investigation into the cause of the fire was immediately started. The Investigations Division worked along-side the St. Charles Fire Department Arson Investigators, the ATF, the Illinois Office of the State Fire Marshall, and the DuPage County State's Attorney's Office. This collaboration led to the solving of this case in which four youths were petitioned to DuPage County Juvenile Court on charges of Arson, Burglary, Criminal Damage to Property, and Criminal Trespass to Property. Two St. Charles Police Department Detectives, Russ Haywood and Rick Murawski, were nominated for Kane County Officer of the Year Award as a result of their hard work on this case.

Evidence Submission and Storage

After evidence is collected by a police officer, it is packaged and information about the items are entered into a computer system and a barcode is generated. These barcodes stay with the evidence package throughout its lifetime and help keep track of its location. Once an item is packaged and barcoded, it gets locked into a "one-way" evidence locker by the officer. The items stay secured in the locker until a property custodian checks them into the evidence vault and assigns a permanent storage location within the vault, keeping a chain of custody or "life history" for each item of evidence.

The property custodian maintains the integrity of all found items and submitted evidence and coordinates future investigative, crime lab submission, or court related needs. A single fingerprint can be one of dozens or more items recovered during a case investigation. Using this as an example, this one recovered print will be handled by on-scene police personnel, an evidence custodian, a courier for transportation to a crime lab, processing by one or more lab personnel, and upon return, another courier, evidence custodian, etc. This all happens before it is to be handled by the State's Attorney, possibly viewed by a defense attorney, and accepted during trial by the court clerk. This one item has now been handled at least nine times and chain of custody documentation must be completed for each of these individual instances. A single case with 20 pieces of evidence now entails numerous man-hours of dedicated work and recordkeeping that regularly occurs out of the public's view.

Evidence storage requires high levels of organization, effective storage management, and maximization of available space, while considering health, safety, and long-term preservation concerns. In order to meet these requirements, our evidence storage facility utilizes equipment such as a specialized vault room, moveable high-density shelving units and large rack shelving for oversized items such as refrigerators and mattresses.

An often-overlooked aspect of evidence storage involves our compliance with laws requiring items be maintained for long periods of time, potentially for dozens of years, or forever. Quarterly audits ensure that the integrity of our stored evidence is continuously maintained. Audit results are subject to not only internal command staff review but also that of outside agency inspectors via our on-going CALEA certification process. In 2022 we were able to legally purge 352 items of evidence from our storage facilities, while we accepted 1,358 new items during this same period.

Evidence Processing

Our police facility includes a spacious evidence processing area. This area is used by evidence technicians to employ more advanced processing techniques than what is often available at a crime scene. The processing area includes a cyanoacrylate (super glue) fuming chamber which can be used to reveal fingerprints which are not visible to the naked eye, a fingerprinting processing downdraft table, and a macro photography stand for taking close-up photos of developed latent evidence and trace evidence. The processing room also features bright LED task lighting and houses several alternate light sources (ALS) for revealing and photographing unseen evidence such as fingerprints or biological stains. The processing area is equipped with chemicals and dye stains which can be used in conjunction with the forensic ALS to aid in the recovery of evidence.

Casting materials, static electrical charges, and gelatins are available for the recovery and/or enhancement of dust prints or other footwear impression evidence. Chemicals, which provide presumptive confirmation testing of drugs and/or suspected blood evidence, are also at our disposal.

Digital Evidence

No area in forensics is growing faster than digital forensics. Electronic devices are becoming more and more a part of our every day life. New devices are released and changes or updates happen at a whirlwind pace. Storage sizes on our devices continue to increase rapidly. Cell phones have storage capacities of hundreds of gigabytes up to one terabyte! To help the St. Charles

Police Department cope with the ever-increasing demand to recover evidence in the digital age, our facility is equipped with a dedicated digital forensics lab.

The digital lab has workstations to process information from cell phones, computers, and vehicles. Security and privacy are key for this recovered digital data, as it is treated the same as any other type of physical evidence. The digital lab contains a forensic server which holds all of the recovered data. The forensic server and its data are completely isolated from the Internet as well as the City and Police Department networks.

Major Crimes Task Force

Our department continues to actively participate as members of the Kane County Major Crimes Task Force. Police agencies county-wide jointly share specialized/technical resources in order to maximize response to what can be complex criminal investigations. Task force participation is reciprocal in that should our community ever need additional manpower and/or specialized resources then these are only a phone call away. The St. Charles Police Department assisted in four major task force calls for assistance in 2022.

Prescription Drug Disposal

In 2022, we were able to safely dispose of approximately 154 pounds of prescription drugs. Of this, 119 pounds were collected in partnership with Northwestern Medicine from the DEA's national prescription drug take-back day. This collection program continues to benefit the community by removing public contact with controlled substances. We continue to offer the program to City of St. Charles residents and promote this environmentally safe and controlled disposal of unwanted or unneeded drugs in order to reduce or eliminate any related drug-based catastrophes.

Training & Accreditation

By Training & Accreditation Coordinator Guy Hoffrage

Overview

The St. Charles Police Department recognizes the importance of training and is continually striving to ensure sworn officers and civilian staff are provided with the knowledge and education to perform their service to the community in a professional and safe manner.

In 2022, St. Charles Police Department personnel received 14,047 hours of job-related training. This number reflects a 9% increase in the number of training hours attained in 2021.

St. Charles police officers work a 10.25-hour workday. The 10.25-hour day allows for an overlap day once a week in which all officers are scheduled to work. All officers have been divided into two teams and are provided, on average, with a 10.25-hour training day once a month.

The Department maintains a training goal of 40 hours of training per year for each full time sworn officer; 98% of our sworn officers exceeded that goal. Our commitment to training personnel is proven.

In-house training remains an integral part of our training program. Quarterly firearms training along with Tactical Simunitions provide our officers with basic firearms handling skills and realistic scenario-based training to place officers in stressful use of force situations to sharpen their tactical thinking and reactions. Community Restitution Program

By Community Restitution Coordinator Francisco Fregoso

The Community Restitution Program is a non-profit work program which operates under the direction of the St. Charles Police Department. Over the past several years it has shown to be an important asset to the Police Department, the City of St. Charles, and its residents. The goal is to help mentor, coach, and guide defendants to make better choices in life from that point forward.

Those assigned to the program are expected to complete specific hours of labor, as restitution to the community. The number of hours each defendant works reflects the type of offense they committed. The program accepts adults and juveniles who are charged with non-violent offenses. During 2022, 113 defendants participated in the program of which 74 have graduated, and the remainder continue to work towards completion. Defendants completed a total of 3,387 hours in labor. This has resulted in a total monetary savings of $76,396.60; twice the monetary savings from 2021. This figure is calculated using the average of the state minimum wage and an entry-level laborer for the City.

The program is operated as a workday and works closely with several departments to identify the needs of the City. In addition to fulfilling tasks for the Police department's facility, defendants are also assigned with the following tasks:

- Pressure washing sidewalks and buildings.
- Collecting trash from over 50 roadways and trash bins throughout the downtown area.
- General maintenance at both the police department and the department's shooting range.
- Snow removal around the downtown area and public spaces.
- Washing, disinfecting, and detailing vehicles for the police department and public works.
- Help senior citizens and residents with medical conditions in maintaining their properties.
- Painting of City offices, light poles, pedestrian bridges, the safety bollards at the east and west side parking garages, and graffiti removal.
- Mowing and general landscaping of City property, as well as abandoned/foreclosed properties.

The program continues to be a place of learning and growing, as well as a place where defendants are aided in finding counseling and other rehabilitation needs. The goal moving forward continues to focus on minimizing the number of defendants who get caught in a cycle of criminal recidivism. This year the number of repeat offenders was three (3), the least it has been in the last 5 (five) years.

Social Services

By Sandra Rincon

The St. Charles Police Department continues to partner with A.I.D. (Association for Individual Development). Sandra Rincon, employed by A.I.D., has office hours at the Police Department five days a week and works closely with officers on a multitude of different social services cases. Sandra obtained her Bachelor's Degree in Social Work from the University of St. Francis and holds a Master's Degree in Social Work from Aurora University. Her background is in crisis intervention, training in Applied Suicide Intervention Skills (ASIST), and an understanding of bereavement.

Sandra's collaboration with the St. Charles Police Department began in April of 2019. In fiscal year 2022, Sandra accumulated a total of 307 cases and 570 clients. Sandra looks forward to being a supportive resource to the community.

The role of a police social worker is to liaison with the Police Department, the community, and the various social service agencies that serve our residents. A police social worker does not provide long-term counseling, but rather assesses the quality of life issues brought to the attention of the Police Department, attempts to stabilize those issues, and provides the proper referrals necessary to bring the situation at hand to a successful conclusion or at least a manageable situation moving forward.

Examples of issues/situations in which a police social worker would be utilized:

- Mental health issues
- Chemical and/or substance abuse
- Victim advocacy
- Neighbor mediation/conflict resolution
- Hoarding
- Elderly services
- Youth services
- Domestic Violence/Orders of Protection
- City liaison with area social service agencies.

Crisis Intervention

The St. Charles Police Department realizes that mental illness is an enormous challenge in our society today and consists of a broad spectrum of illnesses. It is vital that all sworn personnel are trained in CIT (Crisis Intervention Team) matters to effectively address the individuals suffering from these illnesses. The Department is working towards training all sworn officers in this essential training.

Currently, the Department has 43 sworn personnel who make up the Crisis Intervention Team. They are:

Nic Anson	Joseph Gaske	Erik Mahan	Othello Rosal
Melinda Anyon	Daniel Godinho	Eric Majewski	Joshua Rowoldt
Eric Bauwens	Russell Haywood	Michael McCowan	Brett Runkle

Tri-Com Central Dispatch

By Tri-Com Director Joe Schelstreet

During 2022, Tri-Com processed 136,542 inbound and outbound telephone calls; which resulted in 112,967 calls for service dispatched. Out of the total calls, 46,111 were calls received via the 9-1-1 emergency number. It should be noted that 79% of Tri-Com's 9-1-1 calls were received from wireless devices. Only 37 text to 911 messages were received with 20 of those being either test calls or accidental contacts.

Calls for service by community and contract agency in 2022 were:

- St. Charles – 29.44%
- Batavia – 16.53%
- Geneva – 17.26%
- Tri-City Ambulance – 8.09%
- Elburn and Elburn FPD – 6.14%
- Sugar Grove and Sugar Grove FPD – 6.83%
- North Aurora FPD – 2.32%
- Waubonsee Campus Police – 0.11%
- South Elgin Police – 13.28%

Staffing

Tri-Com is authorized to maintain 18 full-time dispatchers, 3 supervisors, and one part-time dispatcher. While we have chosen to maintain one part-time dispatch position, at this time we are currently looking at assigning some additional responsibilities to that position for call review. We have one immediate opening in the full-time telecommunicator ranks and continue to advertise and test prospective candidates as they apply. Hiring and retention continue to be a challenge in this industry. We continue to update and revise our testing and training programs in an ongoing effort to have more candidates available for rapid hire and to increase the percentage of people who graduate from the training program.

Collective Bargaining

We were successful in conducting some mid-term bargaining this summer that will better align our total compensation program with our competitors. This process was very collaborative and took very few sessions to accomplish.

Budget

We were fortunate to receive a large refund of previously withheld surcharge money this year. The State NG 9-1-1 project expenses were lower than expected and the remaining monies were refunded to the ETSB's within the State. This money will be put to good use on an upcoming capital project. As has been our previously adopted practice, we continued to apply for reimbursement of expenses for headsets, training and CAD maintenance. This year, we also upgraded our 10 digit phone lines to SIP and were able to recoup those costs as well.

Fiscal Year 22/23 Projects

Several significant capital projects were completed during this fiscal year. The most significant of these was the connection to the State of Illinois NG911 ESiNet. This project involved hundreds of hours of preparatory work by multiple staff members. Additionally, prior to the link being made, our 911 phone equipment had to be updated so that the connection process went more smoothly. Our 10 digit emergency lines were also upgraded from Centralized Automated Message Accounting (CAMA) to Session Initiated Protocol (SIP). This has resulted in lines that have better audio quality and are less expensive than their predecessors. Tri-Com was one of the first 16 agencies in the State of Illinois to connect to the ESiNet. The last major project was the connection that was made to the City of St. Charles Municipal Water Supply. Tri-Com had previously relied upon a well to provide both domestic and fire suppression water. This meant that multiple complicated systems had to be maintained. The quality of the water was poor and the system was limited in the volume and pressure that could be provided. The new municipal connection has been a definite upgrade and was very well received.
