9. Additional Items

A. Commissioners

Comm. Johnson asked if the NRC could be informed of any trends the city arborist may be aware of such as pests, tree species not weathering storms well, etc. Additionally, Comm. Churchill requested more information regarding tree removals to be included in the city's reports to the NRC. Mr. Reineking stated there is a new Public Services Division manager and further utilization of the city's Treekeeper application is planned. Additional information will be reported to the NRC.

Chair. Nagy noted some of the trends he is aware of including Oak wilt especially in Red Oak species, a forecast for loss of mature Oak trees, Viburnum leaf beetle damage, and spongy moth [formerly gypsy moth] with hot spots in the Chicago areas of Arlington Heights and Palatine.

Comm. Johnson inquired about the types of erosion control blankets used by Public Works, and noted that plastic landscape netting is photo-degradable, but micro-plastic pollutants are still an environmental concern and the plastic netting is hazardous to wildlife, especially near the river. Mr. Reineking reported the city had ordered several types of coconut fiber blankets which will be used on trial restorations at the city's Fire Department.

Comm. Johnson inquired as to the possibility of having members of the NRC involved in the city's review process for plans and projects to offer comment. Comm. Johnson suggested commissioners might offer input on projects such as a city rain garden and intended species to be planted, for example. Commissioners could provide comments to the city as their interest and relevant expertise may apply. Mr. Reineking will look into this request.

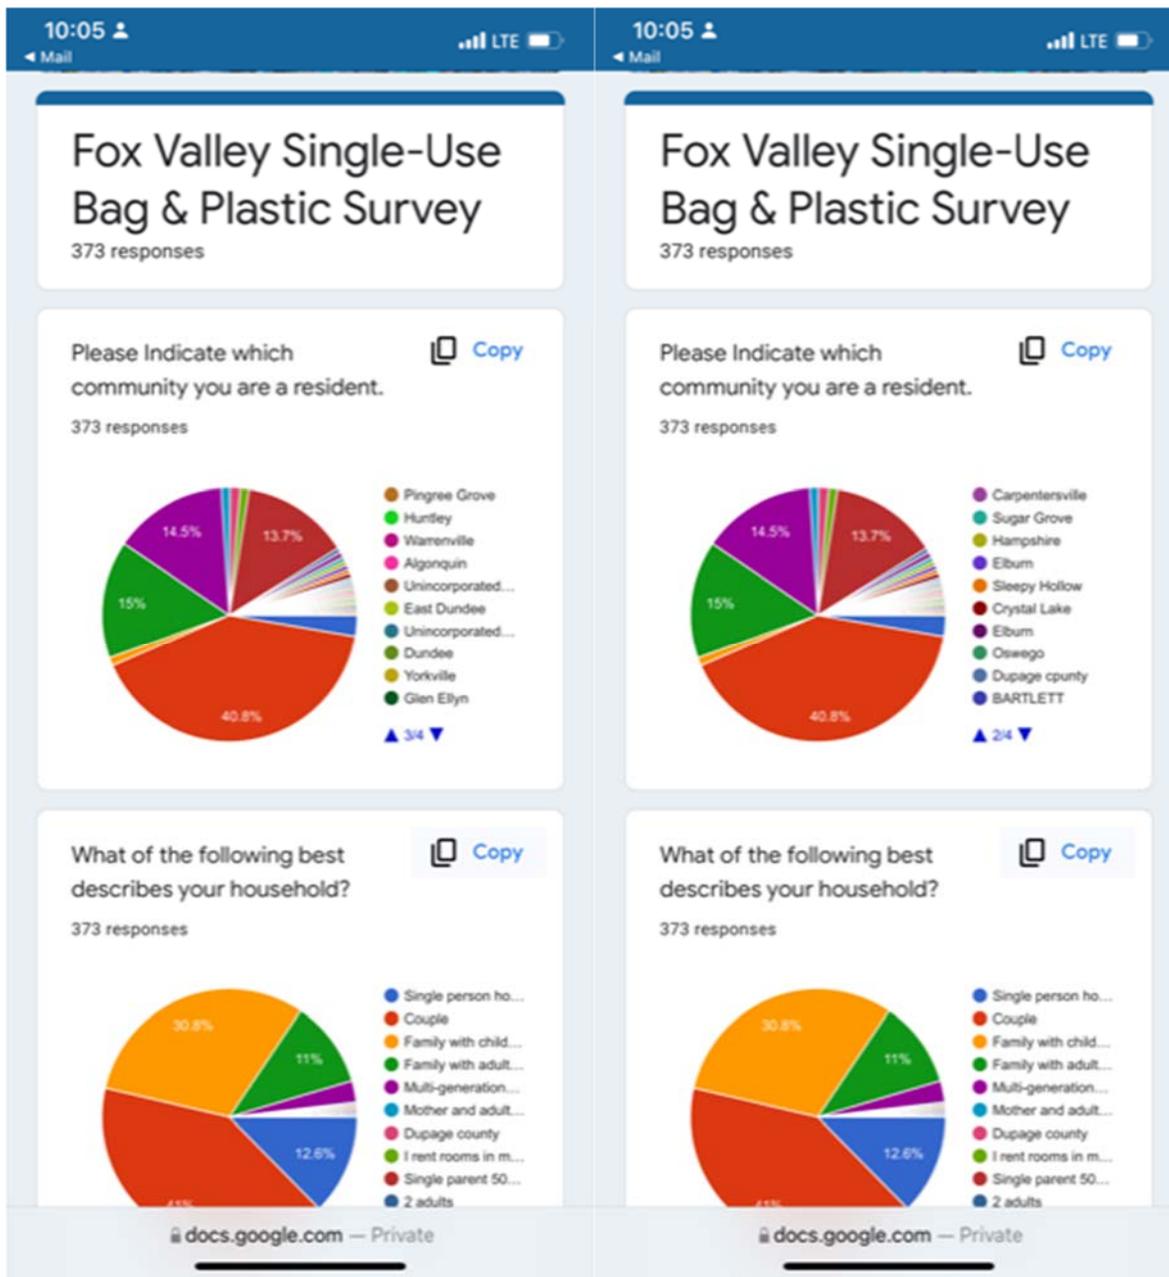

Comm. Johnson asked if there was an erosion management plan for the east side of the Fox River across from Mt. St. Mary Park. Mr. Reineking will obtain additional information on this inquiry from the St. Charles Park District.

ADDENDUM TO MINUTES
CITY OF ST. CHARLES
NATURAL RESOURCES COMMISSION MEETING
LOREN NAGY, CHAIRMAN
APRIL 13, 2022

In follow-up to Comm. Johnson's inquiries at the April NRC meeting [9. Additional Items. A. Commissioners], Mr. Reineking addressed the following items with Comm. Johnson via email prior to the May NRC meeting:

- Erosion Control Blankets – The city's current inventory of erosion control blankets containing plastics will be used in non-wetland areas. Once the current inventory of the erosion control blankets is depleted, the city will transition to a more ecologically friendly alternative.
- NRC's Possible Review of Plans for City Projects – Based upon the potential to slow down projects, and given the NRC's advisory role to the city, Public Works Department management suggested the NRC develop standard specifications for plantings in natural settings that can be incorporated into Public Works projects.
- Fox River East Riverbank from Illinois Street to Prairie Street – The restoration of this area will be discussed with the city's ecological restoration consultant to determine what resources would be required for native shoreline stabilization. The River Corridor Foundation may be involved as well.
