- Our policy is to ID anyone who appears to be under the age of 40
- All of our employees are required to complete training on age restricted products, which covers acceptable forms of identification and our policy of carding anyone under 40
- Our POS system is designed to capture the DOB by either scanning the ID or manually inputting it for customers under the age of 40. If the DOB entered is less than 21 years old, it prevents the sale.
- We voluntarily conduct regular compliance checks using the company BARS (<http://www.barsprogram.com/>)
- We have a zero tolerance policy for sales to minors, and failed inspections by government agencies result in automatic termination for the employee who completed the sale.

There were no questions or comments from the Commission and the record was closed on this item.

The corporate office of Walmart was not able to send a representative to attend this meeting, and provided a statement which Attorney Peppers read.

1. The violating cashier was identified and terminated;
2. The store completed a corrective action plan to strengthen future compliance with corporate and regulatory requirements;
3. The store manager met with all cashiers and members of management to discuss age verification training.

Additional compliance measures taken to prevent youth access to tobacco:

1. Mandatory computer-based training for store associates focused on preventing the sale of tobacco products to minors and requesting identification from customers that appear to be under a certain age (40 years of age or ID’ing all customers depending on the store). These trainings also instruct our associates on:
  - a. Preventing the illegal sale of tobacco by knowing and looking for common signs of illegal practices such as a straw purchase;
  - b. Instructing our associates on how to deal with hostile customers and enlisting help from managers or coworkers if necessary;
  - c. Identifying legal forms of IDs, checking IDs, and recognizing fake IDs; and
  - d. Discussing the potential criminal, civil, and administrative penalties for selling tobacco to a minor.
2. Formal communications to stores to refresh associates’ knowledge of tobacco sale requirements;
3. Periodic monitoring and auditing focused on the execution of tobacco sales and posting of signage;
4. Cash register prompts that guide associates through each tobacco sale; and
5. An accountability matrix that imposes immediate disciplinary actions, including termination, for associates who sell tobacco products to minors.

There were no questions or comments from the Commission and the record was closed on this item.
