Executive Summary (if not budgeted please explain):

The Police Department responds to complaints of larger vehicles such as trucks, campers, and trailers, which are parked on City streets in residential areas overnight. St. Charles does allow parking on City streets at night; however, certain types of vehicles are prohibited between 10:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m. In reviewing the applicable ordinance it was discovered that a reference to the Illinois Vehicle Code was outdated and in need of updating. In an attempt to provide the public with this information and be more consistent with enforcement efforts, it is being proposed that some of the language be updated.

In accordance with Illinois Compiled Statutes Chapter 625, Section 5/11-208(16)(b), signs giving reasonable notice of these parking restrictions will be posted. The Police Department will coordinate with Public Works to identify locations which will provide adequate and reasonable notice.
