Executive Summary:

This application was received on March 25th and the special events committee met to discuss the event on March 31, 2016.

This event has been proposed to take place June 11-12, 2016, in Langum Park. This event is being organized by the Camp Kane Heritage Foundation and 8th Illinois Calvary as an educational fund-raiser and family event. For a fee, families will be able to tent camp among the tents of an 8th Illinois Calvary encampment. A central campfire location will be set with minimal, if any cooking being done. City services requested for this event include use of the water spigot in the park and porta-john set-up ($60 fee posted above).

No alcohol will be permitted at this event.
