Proclamation

APRIL 21, 2017

BRING YOUR STUDENT TO WORK DAY

WHEREAS, 24 years ago, an initiative was developed to encourage girls and boys across the country to dream without gender limitation and think imaginatively about their family, work, and community lives; and

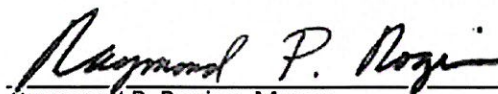

WHEREAS, Bring Your Student to Work Day allows our youth to connect what they learn at school with the actual working world, learn more about what specific jobs entail; increase critical thinking, communication, positive identity, and self-esteem; provide the opportunity to learn about different people and the importance of teamwork; and challenges them to think beyond common stereotypes; and

WHEREAS, the program embodies the mission of the City of St. Charles - Heritage. Community. Service. Opportunity - in that it focuses on the opportunity the youth of St. Charles bring to our community; and

WHEREAS, Bring Your Student to Work Day helps future generations learn about the many important services the City provides; introduce them to the people who provide those services each day; and encourage the youth of our community to consider rewarding careers in public service.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Raymond P. Rogina, Mayor of the City of St. Charles, along with the St. Charles City Council, do hereby proclaim April 21, 2017, as "BRING YOUR STUDENT TO WORK DAY" in the City of St. Charles and welcome the children and grandchildren of City employees to visit the City offices and work sites with their parents and grandparents on this day.

Raymond P. Rogina, Mayor
