The City of St. Charles participates in the Tri-City Ambulance Service (“TCA”), which is an intergovernmental agency of several separate taxing bodies, administered by a board made up of representatives from those taxing bodies. The intergovernmental agreement, under which this agency operates, has designated the City of St. Charles lead agency. The City provides administrative support for this agency which includes bookkeeping, accounting and reporting services. The City also maintains a bank account on behalf of TCA.

BMO Harris Bank N.A. provides banking, depository and custodial services for Tri-City Ambulance. For purposes of managing these services, the Mayor, Treasurer, City Administrator and Director of Finance have been designated as authorized officers to act on behalf of the City. In this capacity, these City officials are given bank signatory powers.

The election of a new City Mayor and appointment of a new City Treasurer require the execution of a bank resolution to formally identify the change in the City’s designated officials.
