Ald. Payleitner complimented Mr. Minick on the presentation and the book provided and said that the information was very concise.

Mayor Rogina said it seems that there is a push to restore the LGDF level to where it's been. He also said that pension consolidation is a must. A number of organizations are pushing strongly that we don't need 663 different pension funds throughout the state. This could provide savings. Mayor Rogina said that unfunded mandates, currently the lead issue on private properties being assigned to Cities would be devastating. We have to be vigilant.
