The City will pay for city services for this event not to exceed $1,000. The only services event coordinators are requesting include two portalets and for the water to be turned on at the appropriate location in the park.

Executive Summary:

The Camp Kane Heritage Foundation, in partnership with the City of St. Charles, would like to hold a rededication ceremony on Saturday, September 20, 2014 to unveil the Jones Law Office and rededicate a portion of Langum Park back to Camp Kane.

Set up for this event will begin around 8 a.m. and clean-up will take place around 3:30 p.m. The actual ceremony will take place at 1:00 p.m. An approximate attendance of 150 people is expected for this event. Parking for attendees will be available on Deveraux Way and in the Langum Park lot off of 7th Avenue. Event coordinators will confirm with the Park District to ensure no conflicts will take place with previously scheduled sports or other events taking place in the park that day.

Several encampments have taken place on this property over the past years without incident, except for the cannon noise. A cannon will not be present at this ceremony; however, a gun salute is expected to take place.

Other special events taking place on this weekend, which have been previously approved by Committee and Council, include the St. Charles East Homecoming Parade and activities and the Fox Valley Marathon. The actual marathon will take place on Sunday; however, the Kids Marathon will take place on Saturday at 3:00 p.m. across the river from this event.
