E. Additional Items from Mayor, Council, Staff, or Citizens

- Elaine Chase, 2N Second St., #105.

I want to discuss something very important to me. I love St. Charles; I've lived here forever and have lots of connections to St. Charles and the Hotel Baker. I am grateful for the opportunity to live at Carroll Towers. I liked to garden there, it meant a lot to me. Unfortunately, the Baker Hotel dug out the old bushes and put in tall ones that eliminated our gardens almost. I have pictures, letters and petitions. I love the hotel, but I don't think what they did was neighborly. We were not notified. It has changed the quality of our lives because it is the whole length of our building, you can see. The height of the bushes makes things darker. I am not sure if it is a fire hazard, it used to be for the fire department. If we can compromise in some way.

- Alder. Lewis

Has someone contacted the Hotel Baker?

- Ms. Chase

I went over to talk to the manager the day the bushes went in, but no one ever contacted me. They planted the bushes in August. Mary Morgan called but no one showed up to talk to her.

- Alder. Bessner

To Staff, does anyone know the logistics or heard of this before?

- Chief Schelstreet

What we have found that this is a case of two private property owners.

- Alder. Bessner

Has there been a complaint?

- Chief Schelstreet

Yes, this is a private property issue between two private properties. There have been many alterations have been made over the years, but things are compliant. The building has more than adequate exiting and plenty of fire access available.

- Mayor Rogina

Please provide your information to Tina. My initial reaction, agreeing with Chief Schelstreet, I am not sure how much the City can do if it is a private property matter between two private property owners. Having said that, it's still important to listen to you and look at your materials and get back to you in timely manner. I will direct Staff to get back to you with a response.

- Alder. Lemke
We will need to know where the property lines are.
- Mayor Rogina
Back to Chief Schelstreet's point, this is still a property matter between two private properties.
- Larry Callahan, #319 Carroll Towers
Several factors are involved here. When the hotel sold the property for the Carroll Towers about 1980. I was on the review board at that time for historic preservation for that building. And it wasn't worth saving. I didn't follow up with how it went through, on how much land was allotted then. Like Chief said, I am not sure how the easement for the fire lane was handled. There is a gate on either end of Baker property that looks like it would allow a truck to get in there. As tenants, we are required to have egress through the windows for the first three floors. Can't do that on the riverside because it is blocked. I don't know who dropped the ball on that development issue on the property in the 80s. Part of the issue is health and air quality for our residents. We are getting mold and pollen from outside through air intakes on the roof. We have a lot of strange air issues in the building. The street lights in the easement area have not been maintained over the last five years. That's one area that those trees block.
- Mayor Rogina
Do you agree with the Chief's assessment?
- Larry Callahan
I think the trucks they have now are too wide to fit in the gate. Fighting a fire on that side would be an issue.
- Mayor Rogina
To his point about private property, do you support that concept?
- Larry Callahan
It's a problem.
- Mayor Rogina
Staff will look into this, if it remains a private property issue, not sure how much the City can do. If there are violations of City ordinances, we will be the first to respond to.
- Dawn Henry, 310 Carroll Tower
It is a lovely building and community. However it is not maintained in the back by the Baker Hotel. They only do the minimum. The view is all we have. There is no place to sit anymore. If they could just work with us, that would help. We are friendly and love St. Charles.
- Mayor Rogina
I think the comments you have made today, will get to proper channels. Hope we can find middle ground.
- Mayor Rogina
Reminded all that the Saturday after Thanksgiving is Small Business Saturday and encouraged all to shop and buy local. This weekend is the 40th anniversary of Jim Martin's first City Council meeting.
